Specificity / Sensitivity		MEKK3 (D36G5) Rabbit mAb recognizes endogenous levels of total MEKK3 protein.
Source / Purificat		Monoclonal antibody is produced by immunizing animals with a synthetic peptide corresponding to residues surrounding Pro310 of human MEKK3 protein.
Background		MAP kinase kinase kinase (MEKK3 or MAP3K3) is a serine/threonine protein kinase that activates SAPK and ERK via phosphorylation and activation of their respective MAP kinase kinases, SEK and MEK1/2 (1,2). MEKK3 also stimulates MEK5 via activation of ERK5/BMK1, which is at least partly regulated by a direct interaction between MEK5 and MEKK3 via p67phox-Bem1p (PB1) protein-protein interaction domains found in both proteins (3,4). MEKK3 modulates NF- κ B activation in response to a variety of agonists including TNF α , LPS, IL-1 and LPA (5-9). Despite reports showing that phosphorylation of MEKK3 at Ser526 within the activation loop is necessary for kinase activation (10-12), at least one study suggests that dual phosphorylation at Thr516 and Ser520 is required for LPA-stimulated IKK β /NF- κ B activation (13). Phosphorylation at Thr294 appears to negatively regulate MEKK3 by promoting 14-3-3 β binding and
